

Auger electron yield

The fraction of the atoms having a vacancy in an inner orbital which relax by emission of an Auger electron.

Source:

PAC, 1979, 51, 2243 (General aspects of trace analytical methods - IV. Recommendations for nomenclature, standard procedures and reporting of experimental data for surface analysis techniques) on page 2247