

co-solvency

in polymers

The dissolution of a polymer in a solvent comprising more than one component, each component of which by itself is a non-solvent for the polymer.

Source:

Purple Book, p. 60