

internal standard

in chromatography

A compound added to a sample in known concentration to facilitate the qualitative identification and/or quantitative determination of the sample components.

Source:

PAC, 1993, 65, 819 (Nomenclature for chromatography (IUPAC Recommendations 1993)) on page 837