

isotopically unmodified

Describes a compound that has a macroscopic composition such that its constituent nuclides are present in the proportions occurring in nature.

Source:

Blue Book, p. 514

PAC, 1981, 53, 1887 (Nomenclature of inorganic chemistry: II.1 - Isotopically modified compounds) on page 1889