

support-coated open-tubular (SCOT) column

in chromatography

A version of a porous-layer open-tubular (PLOT) column in which the porous layer consists of support particles and was deposited from a suspension.

Source:

PAC, 1993, 65, 819 (Nomenclature for chromatography (IUPAC Recommendations 1993)) on page 831